GST Legal Updates
WP Nos.4764, 4769, 4892, 5074, 5130, 5329, 6952 and 7583 of 2019 – decided on 18.04.2019

The Writ Petition was filed by Seven Companies Infinity Metals Products India Limited, Sujana Universal Industries Limited, Hindustan Ispat Private Limited, EBC Bearings India Limited, V.S. Ferros Enterprises Private Limited, Hyderabad Steels, MSR India Limited and Suyati Impex Private Limited.

The Petitioners challenged the issuance of summons and searches conducted by the Hyderabad GST officials.

While upholding the arrest, a Division Bench rejected the technical objections raised by the petitioners over the powers and reasons of the GST officials to arrest them. The bench observed that despite the petitions being maintainable and incongruities within some provisions of the Central Goods and Service Tax (CGST) Act-2017, the relief could not be granted to the companies due to the ‘special circumstances’ of the case.
